National Day for Truth &
Reconciliation

In solemn recognition of Her late Majesty, the Government of Alberta has announced that September 19, 2022 will be a provincial day of mourning.

The day has not been legislated as a public national holiday, but the Minister of Education encourages schools to offer opportunities for students to take part in the day of mourning

Given this information, Monday September 19, 2022 all schools in the Palliser School Division will proceed as per the approved calendar.

Hello Parents,

We have migrated to “New” student information systems, and with it there are new programs for our parents to utilize.

In the coming days, you will receive some very important emails inviting you to create accounts in both systems. It is vital that this is done ASAP.

“Edsembli Connect” is where you will update your contact information, and sign permission forms regarding Technology, computer access for your children, and various consents.

“EDSBY” is a communication device that CES will be using for attendance, report cards & communication with the office.

This is a new system for everyone, please contact Miss Vos in the office, and she may be able to assist you with any difficulties.

CES Hot Lunch

Hot Lunches will be starting in October.

Watch your school cash account for more information.

Only online orders will be accepted, sorry no cash!

Order deadlines will not be extended, don't forget to order!

Parent volunteers are needed, without them, the program will not run.

Orange Shirt Day

Please join CES and recognizing National Truth & Reconciliation Day and wear your orange shirts to school on
